ABSTRACT

Comprised of seven tables, this compilation of community attitude responses for the Western States Small Schools Project includes data derived from Arizona (8 communities); Colorado (16 communities); Nevada (4 communities); and Utah (2 communities). Data are presented in terms of the following categories: administration; general attitude; finance; personnel; and program. The seven tables include the following: (1) responses by individual communities for each state; (2) responses from all surveyed communities by state; (3) statewide responses by category from the four states involved in the survey; (4) combined responses by category from all states involved in the survey; (5) profile of the combined positive responses from all communities for each state; (6) profile of the combined undecided responses by category for all surveyed communities in each state; (7) profile of the combined negative responses by category for all communities in each state.
